

OIF Advocacy in Action

Senate Appropriations Committees Urges NIH to Support OI Research June 14, 2012

The OIF worked with the Senate Appropriations Committee to have language included in the budget for the National Institutes of Health urging the agency to increase its commitment to natural history studies of OI. The language also urged the National Institute of Arthritis and Musculoskeletal and Skin Diseases to work with advocacy groups and others in this effort.